

The logo for Oregon State University is presented on a bright orange background that resembles a folded piece of paper. The top half of the image is a solid orange rectangle, while the bottom half is white, separated by a horizontal fold line. The text "Oregon State" is written in a large, white, serif font, and "UNIVERSITY" is written below it in a smaller, white, sans-serif font. The entire text is centered horizontally. The orange background has folded corners at the bottom left and bottom right, creating a three-dimensional effect.
